Shaktidev Mukherjee
Director General, MIT
From Chief Editor's Desk

You must unlearn what you have been programmed to believe since birth. That software no longer serves you, if you want to live in a world where all things are possible.

-Jacqueline E. Purcel

It gives me immense pleasure to present before you the maiden issue of quarterly newsletter of Moradabad Institute of Technology. This newsletter is a literary & creative document of the talents and values of our students and faculty members. It is an intimate, timely and honest portrait of the College - its people, its programs, its challenges, its resources and its achievement. MIT has achieved many milestones in its journey towards excellence. It has not confined itself to the academic brilliance only but explored a new horizon for creativity, innovation, aesthetic and spiritual development. MIT conducts various programmes and events to provide the students knowledge along with practical wisdom and moral values, so that they may face the challenges of life and sparkle like stars in the galaxy of human race.

I heartily thank to our Director General Prof. (Dr) S. Mukherjee for showing confidence in me and giving this onus to serve as an editor. His vision and support is always inspirational for all of us and will help us in achieving our goals. This journey of accomplishments and celebrations of MIT will continue facing boldly the rough weather or the wild storms. I would like to quote the motivational lines of Robert Frost:

The woods are lovely, dark and deep
But I have promises to keep
And miles to go before I sleep
And miles to go before I sleep
I will like to have constructive feedback of the erudite readers for further improvements.

-Sangeeta Mahesh

A Reflection of the Activities and Achievements of MIT

This quarterly newsletter of MIT is the reflection of activities and achievements of MIT. Though the newsletter is quarterly, but being the maiden issue we have taken the liberty to incorporate the events, achievements, awards and news from July, 2013. The reason behind is that MIT has witnessed many outstanding attainments and wonderful events during these months. We can not miss to share these festive moments of accomplishments of our alma mater. We have started with the ‘Pran Pratishtha’ ceremony of the idol of Maa Saraswati, seeking Her blessings to provide us wisdom and knowledge. Then we have presented the activities of every department in separate sections.

‘Pran Pratishtha’ (Sanctification Ceremony) of the Idol of Maa Saraswati in College Temple

On 18 July, 2013, Pran Pratishtha’ (Sanctification Ceremony) of the idol of Maa Saraswati was performed in the college temple. The entire atmosphere radiated with divine energies. It was a grand fiesta where the whole of the MIT family recited prayers together. Maa Saraswati is the Goddess of knowledge, music and art. Saraswati means ‘the one, who gives the essence (Sara) of our own self (Swa). May Maa Saraswati shower Her blessings on all of us.

“I spring forth from the waters of the ocean
From there I spread into the universe
I touch the sky with my body
I blow like the winds creating the worlds
My greatness expands beyond the sky and the earth”

-Devi Upanishad
